

Book An American Songline

Whether you're a Lincoln Highway fan or just love vintage music, why not liven up your next event with an American Songline performance? I am happy to perform at your wedding, family celebration, or community or corporate event.

American Songline programs consist of a mix of vaudeville and show tunes, operetta and light classical numbers, all dating from the early years of the 20th century.

These songs range from sweet and sentimental to witty and sophisticated, and are guaranteed crowd-pleasers! Here are just a few that my audiences have loved hearing (and sometimes singing along to):

Secondhand Rose • I'm Always Chasing Rainbows • Nobody Makes a Pass at Me
When You're Smiling • Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life • In My Merry Oldsmobile

In addition to my normal concert program, I am happy to learn just about any old-time numbers you request. Let me know what kind of show you want to hear, and I'll work with you to make it happen!

Availability

I am traveling the Lincoln Highway roughly through Labor Day, and so the only requests I can take until then will have to coincide with my travels on the road; let me know if you have a venue on or near the Lincoln where you'd like me to perform.

Starting this fall, I am no longer traveling and will be happy to consider any request within the continental U.S., so don't hesitate to reach out to me!

Requesting a Performance

To request a private American Songline performance, send me an email at info@americansongline.net. You can also call 303-995-5009. Please include the following information:

- Your name
- Event date
- Event location
- Type of event (wedding, party, public event, etc.)

Also let me know if I will need to arrange for my own accommodations and piano accompanist, as that will help me to determine my expenses.

Thanks for considering me, and I look forward to working with you. Reach out to me today!
